Exhibitor Comments

This show has become one of the best shows that we do in the US. Well managed and quality crowd.

Amadas Industries

I have exhibited at the Southern Farm Show about ten times over past years. It's always a great show, lots of contacts and sales are always good if you work your contacts after the show. Still doing business with customers I met at the show ten years ago.

Whites Tire

This was our first time exhibiting at the show and had no idea what to expect. We were very surprised at the number of visitors and were happy with the number of visitors showing interest in our products.

Hudson Bros. Trailer Mfg., Inc.

Excellent show – very well run.

JFS Power Equipment

We left this year's show with many sales leads and possible new dealers to follow up on.

Farmers Look to Show to Improve Profits

Raleigh – Farmers looking towards the 2016 growing season are understandably nervous. Since the long run of high commodity prices has ended, many are rethinking their operations, from crop selection to equipment purchases. Some are looking for answers, while others have decided the best road forward for them, and are seeking the right strategy to implement their plan.

One thing farmers throughout the Carolinas and Virginia do know is that the annual Southern Farm Show, February 3-5 at the NC State Fairgrounds, is a valuable resource to help make those important decisions. Another certainly is that this year's show, which continues to grow to accommodate more companies wanting to participate, will indeed be worth the trip to Raleigh.

Show Director David Zimmerman confirmed that the 2016 show will be the largest yet, with over 400 manufacturers and service providers represented. A fourth large exhibit tent has been added to the show that already fills the four major exhibit halls and acres of outdoor exhibits at the fairgrounds. The show also utilizes three other fair buildings for meetings, workshops and special events.

"As farmers diversify and adjust, the show diversifies and adjusts along with them," says Zimmerman, noting that a good selection of new equipment and services will be found among over
